

Western Reserve Herb Society
FREE EDUCATIONAL
HERB TALKS

Herb Fair Date: October 11, 2025
10am to 3pm

Cleveland Botanical Garden, 11030 East Blvd,
Cleveland, Ohio 44106

Programs will be given by our members in a casual format featuring information on how to grow and use herbs in various ways. Talks will begin promptly and last for 15 minutes with question and answers following presentation. Sample our products, taste and savor! Stop by to learn and enjoy the use and delight of herbs.

10:30 BEES in the HERB GARDEN

Speaker: Bobbi Pincus

Learn from an experienced bee keeper about the importance of bees in your garden. Find out which herbs you can grow to attract bees as well as the joys of bee keeping.

11:15 ALL ABOUT LAVENDER

Speaker: Lorraine Sevich

Hear all about Lorraine's lavender farm. Learn how to grow lavender in Northeast Ohio including maintenance, pruning, and growing tips. Talk includes a demonstration of the proper way to propagate your own lavender.

12:00 SCENTATIONAL SCENTED GERANIUMS

Speaker: Kathleen Gips

Experience the delightful scents of scented leaf geraniums. Learn about the many varieties, growing tips, and propagating instructions. Learn how to use the scents in cooking and pot-pourri. Taste Rose Geranium chocolate cake!

12:45 HERB GARDENING with KIDS

Speaker: Beth Schreibman-Gehring

Discover the joy of sharing herbs with the next generation. Explore how to introduce children to the world of herb gardening in simple, fun, and meaningful ways. Kid approved herb recipes included.

1:30 COOKING with HERBS

Speaker: Sally Kennedy

What are the herb ladies favorite culinary herbs? Learn all about them as we explore the herb mixes offered at our herb fair. See how to blend herbs to make tasty blends for your favorite dishes.

Moderator: Kathleen Gips

Follow us on Facebook: Western Reserve Herb Society

For information contact: westernreserveherbsociety.org

